The Definition of Culture:

"Culture is the collective programming of the mind which distinguishes the members of one human group from another."
—Geert Hofstede

Culture is also:
- Collective
- Learned
- Slow to Change
- Contradictory