Definition of Stereotype

• “A usually oversimplified conception, opinion, or belief about a person or group, considered to be typical or to conform to an unvarying pattern, and lacking individuality”
  - American Heritage Dictionary

• To stereotype is to develop a fixed idea about a person or group